Walter Callihan — General Telephone Garabe Can and said she didn't care if I ever paid the bill and motion for Callihan to leave General Telephone Company has downsized the operator, supervisor to the point that they are giving the poorest of poor service and Callihan has been out of service at least twice lately and Callihan has had to the Key Public Service Commission at least twice to get the Gen Telephone to repair his service that took days.
General Telephone Company lacks man + women power to provide adequate service in our area.

A formal Complaint is hereby given this day of April 12 1996

P.S. General Telephone recently cut of Callihan's telephone and charge him 35.00 to reconnect just by throwing a switch punishing the old poor elderly to the point it is hard for them to pay. The public service Commission ~~to a~~ should restrict the General telephone to a max of 5.00 to reconnect.
